Alderman Bolton Primary School is a successful and ambitious school with a track record of aiming high. We are seeking creative, outstanding teachers to join us on the next stage of our development.

In looking to be part of the Alderman Bolton Team you are demonstrating your ambition to join us on our journey to offer all children a rich and inspiring learning experience.

We aim to encourage curiosity in our learners and to deepen knowledge, whilst giving them the tools to thrive academically and socially.

We are looking to appoint highly effective teachers:

- To inspire learning in our children across the whole curriculum
- Are committed to raising standards for all learners
- Work co-operatively across their year and the wider school team
- Influence and inspire colleagues to be highly effective
- Are highly organised with excellent interpersonal skills.

In return we offer:

- A coaching culture that carefully nurtures your development and career
- Enthusiastic and kind children
- A highly experienced and supportive senior leadership team
- An ethos that puts children first
- Collaborative working partnerships with schools in the Multi Academy Trust

Safeguarding has the highest priority at school and will be at the heart of our recruitment procedures. The successful candidate will be subject to a stringent vetting and induction process, which will include an enhanced DBS check.
